Notice of Privacy Practices for AmericanEnterprise Group Companies

MEDICAL

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

At AmericanEnterprise Group Companies, including but not limited to American Republic Insurance Company, American Republic Corp Insurance Company, Medico Insurance Company, Medico Life and Health Insurance Company, and Medico Corp Life Insurance Company, (“Company”) we respect the confidentiality of your health information and will protect your information in a responsible and professional manner. We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your health information and to send you this notice.

This notice explains how we use information about you and when we can share that information with others. It also informs you of your rights with respect to your health information and how you can exercise those rights.

When we talk about “information” or “health information” in this notice we mean individually identifiable health information, as defined by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) as amended by the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act (HITECH).

Individually identifiable health information is health information that:

- Is created or received by the Company’s designated health care components;
- Relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health condition of an individual, the provision of health care to an individual, or the past, present, or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; and
- Identifies the individual, or with respect to which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the individual.

How We Use or Share Information

Subject to state and federal laws, we are permitted to use and/or share your information without your authorization in certain circumstances, such as:

- To use or disclose the information for payment purposes. For example, we may use the information to help pay medical bills that have been submitted to us by doctors and hospitals for payment or to contact your doctor to obtain medical records in order to make claim payment decisions.
- To use or disclose the information to perform health care operations. For example, we may use the information for activities relating to underwriting; customer service; legal services; and auditing functions, including fraud and abuse detection and compliance programs. We will not use or disclose genetic information, including family history, for underwriting purposes.
- To use or disclose your information to provide you with information about health related benefits and services that you may be interested in. We will not share your information with or sell it to telemarketing agencies or other agencies that market products other than those products provided or administered by the Company or its business associates without your authorization.

- If you are available and do not object, we may disclose information to a member of your family, a friend, or other person you identify who is involved in your health care or the payment of a claim. If you are unavailable, incapacitated, or facing an emergency medical situation, and we determine that a limited disclosure is in your best interest, we may share limited information with such persons.
- To disclose information to a disaster relief organization in order for the organization to communicate with a family member or other person involved in your care.

There are also state and federal laws that may require or permit us to release your information to others without your authorization.

- To use and disclose information to the extent required to comply with the law.
- To report information to state and federal agencies that regulate us such as the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and the Iowa Division of Insurance.
- To share information for public health activities. For example, we may report information to government authorities conducting public health investigations.
- To use or disclose information to avert a serious health or safety threat.
- To share information with a health oversight agency for certain oversight activities authorized by law. For example audits, inspections, licensure, and disciplinary actions.
- To disclose information in the course of a judicial or administrative proceeding. For example pursuant to a valid court order or subpoena.
- To report information for law enforcement purposes. For example, we may give information to a law enforcement official for purposes of identifying or locating a suspect, fugitive, material witness or missing person.
- To report information to a government authority regarding child abuse, neglect or domestic violence.
- To share information with a coroner or medical examiner to identify a deceased person, determine a cause of death, or as authorized by law. We may also share information to a funeral director as necessary to carry out their duties.
- To use or share information for procurement, banking or transplantation of organs, eyes, or tissue.

- To use or disclose information for research purposes, but only as permitted by law.
- To share information for specialized government functions, such as military and veteran activities, national security and intelligence activities, and the protective services for the President and others.
- To report information on job-related injuries because of requirements of your state workers' compensation laws.

In the event that an applicable law prohibits or materially limits one of the uses or disclosures of information described above, we will restrict the use or disclosure in accordance with the more stringent law.

If one of the above reasons for a use or disclosure does not apply, we must get your written permission, in the form of an authorization, to use or disclose your information. In any case, we must obtain authorization for the use and disclosure of psychotherapy notes. If you give us written permission and change your mind you may revoke your authorization at any time except to the extent that we have taken action in reliance on the authorization or, if the authorization was obtained as a condition of obtaining insurance coverage, other law provides us with the right to contest a claim under the policy or the policy itself.

What Are Your Rights?

The following are your rights with respect to your information. If you would like to exercise the following rights, please contact our Customer Service Center. Contact information for our Customer Service Center is located at the end of this Notice.

- You have the right to be notified in the event there is a breach of your health information.
- You have the right to ask us to restrict how we use or disclose your information for payment or health care operations. You also have the right to ask us to restrict information that we have been asked to give to family members or to others who are involved in your health care or payment for your health care and uses and disclosures for disaster relief purposes. Please note that while we will try to accommodate reasonable requests, we are not required to agree to these restrictions.
- You have the right to request confidential communications of information. For example, if you believe that you would be harmed if we send your information to your current mailing address (for example, in situations involving domestic disputes or violence), you can ask us to send the information by alternative means (for example, by fax) or to an alternative address. We will accommodate your reasonable requests as explained above.
- You have the right to copy and inspect certain components of your information that we maintain. All requests for access must be made in writing and signed by you or your representative. Access request forms are available from our Customer Service Center at the address below. We may charge you a fee for copying and postage.
- You have the right to request that certain components of your information be amended to correct an error or omission. We are not obligated to make all requested amendments but will give each request careful consideration. All amendment requests must be in writing, signed by you or your representative, and must state the reasons for the requested amendment. Amendment request forms are available from our Customer Service Center at the address below.

- You have the right to receive an accounting of certain disclosures of your information. Please note that we are not required to release:
  - Any information collected prior to April 14, 2003.
  - Information disclosed or used for treatment, payment, and/or health care operations purposes.
  - Information disclosed to you or pursuant to your authorization.
  - Information that is incidental to a use or disclosure otherwise permitted.
  - Information disclosed for a facility's directory or to person involved in your care or other notification purposes.
  - Information disclosed for national security or intelligence purposes.
  - Information disclosed to correctional institutions, law enforcement officials or health oversight agencies.
  - Information that was disclosed or used as part of a limited data set for research, public health, or health care operations purposes.

Accounting request forms are available from our Customer Service Center at the address below. The first accounting in any 12-month period is free; however, we may charge you a fee for each subsequent accounting you request in the same 12-month period.

Exercising Your Rights

- You have a right to receive a copy of this notice upon request at any time. We are required to abide by the terms of this notice. Should any of our privacy practices change, we reserve the right to change the terms of this notice and to make the new notice effective for all protected health information we maintain. Once revised, we will provide the new notice to you by mail.

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with us by contacting our Customer Service Center. You may also send a written complaint to the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. We will not take any action against you for filing a complaint.

FINANCIAL

THIS NOTICE APPLIES TO ALL PROSPECTS, APPLICANTS, CUSTOMERS AND FORMER CUSTOMERS WHO HAVE INQUIRED ABOUT OR PURCHASED INSURANCE PRODUCTS USED PRIMARILY FOR PERSONAL, FAMILY OR HOUSEHOLD PURPOSES.

At AmericanEnterprise Group Companies, including but not limited to American Republic Insurance Company, American Republic Corp Insurance Company, Medico Insurance Company, Medico Life and Health Insurance Company, and Medico Corp Life Insurance Company, (“Company”) we keep your personal information confidential and share it only in a responsible manner as necessary to provide and service the products you purchase from us or to offer you additional products.

What Information Do We Collect?

To provide and administer products and services, we must refer to relevant personal information that can be identified to you or your household and that may not be available in public records (“nonpublic personal information”). We collect only the following information required to conduct business:

- Identity information received from your application, such as name, address, social security number, and age.
- Information about your transactions with us, including your identification and policy number(s), the type of products you buy, the premiums you pay, and how you purchased your coverage.
- Information received from a consumer reporting or credit agency or from public records (such as your driving record) as needed by our insurance underwriting practices.
- Information received from a third-party agency, such as consumer purchasing or census data.
- Information received from service providers regarding treatment of health conditions and payment for that treatment.

What Information Do We Share With Others?

To help us provide you with the best possible products and services, we maintain strong relationships with business associates. In the course of conducting business and as permitted or required by law, we may share any of the listed nonpublic personal information with our business associates for the following purposes:

- to process your application and issue your policy.
- to pay your claims.
- to make any policy changes you may request.
- to offer you additional opportunities to improve your financial security.

We may also disclose relevant portions of the information we collect, as described above, to companies that perform services on our behalf or with whom we have joint marketing agreements. We will not, however, disclose your health information for marketing purposes.

Other than the disclosures listed above, we do not release your information to nonaffiliated third parties. We will not for any reason share your information with or sell it to telemarketing agencies or other agencies that market products other than those products provided or administered by the Company or its business associates. Our business associates are bound by the same restrictions on the release and use of such information as the Company. Any future alliances with business associates which include personal information sharing will follow the same policy.

Fair Credit Reporting Act

We do not disclose information subject to the Fair Credit Reporting Act except as permitted or required by law. To the extent that we decide in the future to make any disclosures of your nonpublic personal financial information that are subject to the Act, we will follow the necessary requirements of the Act including providing you with the opportunity to restrict our ability to disclose information.

How Do We Protect Your Information?

We maintain appropriate physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to ensure the confidentiality of your nonpublic personal information. We follow security standards and procedures to help prevent unauthorized access to personal information. Only employees who need the information we collect from or about you to provide products or services to you may access that information. Employees are required to comply with our established policies.

What About Former Customers?

We do not disclose information about former customers unless permitted or required by law.

How Can You Correct Inaccurate Information?

We want to keep our records of your information accurate. If you discover inaccuracies in any communications from us, please call customer service at the number listed on your policy or certificate materials. We will respond promptly when we learn corrections are needed.
